

Review of: "Prevalence of visual impairment and associated factors among welders in West Shewa Zone Oromia Region"

Susiana Nugraha¹

¹ Universitas Respati Indonesia

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This research quite well describes visual impairment in workers. The author needs to enrich references regarding the impact of welding work on visual impairment. In terms of scientific writing, this article needs to be improved so that it meets scientific writing standards, including the use of pronouns and the author's point of view as a researcher, which should be conveyed in passive sentences.

Good luck in your efforts to work better and improve the quality of scientific writing.