

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Congenital Myasthenic Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Congenital Myasthenic Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C84647.

A group of rare genetic neuromuscular disorders characterized by neuromuscular junction defects. The defects are classified as presynaptic, synaptic, or postsynaptic. Signs and symptoms include muscle weakness, easy fatigability, feeding and respiratory difficulties, and scoliosis.