

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Roseola Infantum

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Roseola Infantum. NCI Thesaurus. Code C128420.

An infection that is due to human herpesvirus (HHV) types 6 or 7; it is characterized by 3-5 days of high fever followed by the acute onset of a rosy, pink, non-pruritic, macular rash that is predominantly on the neck and trunk.