

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Activating RAS Mutation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Activating RAS Mutation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C128901.

A mutation in a RAS family gene (HRAS, KRAS or NRAS) that causes the encoded GTPase to be resistant to GTP hydrolysis and results in constitutive activation of its activity and downstream pathways.