

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Iodine Staining Method

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Iodine Staining Method. NCI Thesaurus. Code C85649.

A microscopy staining method that utilizes Iodine, an element belonging to the halogen group, which specifically stains polysaccharides such as cellulose, chitin, glycogen, and starch a blue color.