

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Botulism

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Botulism. NCI Thesaurus. Code C84599.

A serious bacterial infection caused by botulinum toxin which is produced by Clostridium botulinum. Patients are infected usually by ingestion of contaminated food or wound contamination. It leads to muscle paralysis which may result in respiratory failure.