

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Alexander disease type II

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Alexander disease type II. ORPHA:363722

Alexander disease type II (AxD type II) is an astrogliopathy and a form of Alexander disease (AxD; see this term) characterized by ataxia, bulbar symptoms, spastic paraparesis, palatal myoclonus, and autonomic symptoms.