

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Breastfeeding Jaundice

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Breastfeeding Jaundice. NCI Thesaurus. Code C114561.

Yellow coloring of skin, mucous membranes and eyes in an otherwise healthy breast-fed newborn due to insufficient intake of maternally-expressed milk. It commonly appears four to seven days after birth.