

Review of: "If knowledge were simpler, we would all be wiser"

Ľubomír Žáčok, PhD.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The opinions and ideas presented in the article are acceptable. Good examples are given but still limited. The author of the article analyzes his subjective opinions rather than scientifically proven facts. It would be appropriate to add some scientific facts in the form of more graphs and tables. After completing the mentioned shortcomings, the article can be published in a prestigious scientific journal.