

Review of: "From Classrooms to Boardrooms: The Influence of Education on Economic Dynamics"

Nigel D'Silva¹

¹ Tata Institute of Social Sciences

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The literature and references section may need to be updated as the studies quoted in the paper are quite dated with regards to themes such as human capital and endogenous growth theory. Gaps in the literature could be included. Please include semi-structured questionnaires in the appendix if possible. The length of the manuscript could be shortened.