Thank you very much for your manuscript submission.

A major revision is needed as below:

1. There are many typos and grammatical errors. They should be revised.
2. The academic language should be revised.
- 3- did you do Gas Chromatography for your plants?
- 4- please add code number of your bacterial samples.
- 5- Where are your statistical calculations?
- 6-. Please use P value in your statistical calculations
- 7- How many times did you repeated the antimicrobial assay and MIC tests?
- 8- In table3.4 shows that none of the your plants have antimicrobial activity!!!
- 9- did you prepare standard samples for the bacteria? if yes which standard.
