

Review of: "The Empty Chair"

A.M. Pezzella

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The contribution is extremely interesting and well structured and clear. The concept of empty chair and personality as if they are well intertwined with the case of Lucien. The text reads very well. A note. I would add to the title: The case of Lucien, or another explanatory title of the text. Can be published.