

Review of: "[Perspective] The possibility of a silent methamphetamine catastrophe in Bangladesh"

S. Bilal Jilani¹

¹ Dartmouth College

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The authors present a fact on the drug menace facing Bangladesh. This has relevance to create awareness about drug addiction in the country. However, this reviewer believes that the authors can improve this manuscript by including a short description of the steps which the government can take in order to check the spread of drug use in society.