

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Benign Ovarian Epithelial Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Benign Ovarian Epithelial Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4510.

A non-metastasizing tumor that originates from the surface epithelium of the ovary. It is composed of epithelial cells and stroma. Representative examples include serous cystadenoma, mucinous cystadenoma, clear cell adenofibroma, and benign Brenner tumor.