

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Bone-in-Bone Sign

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Bone-in-Bone Sign. NCI Thesaurus. Code C98271.

A radiologic finding that is seen in osteopetrosis. It is characterized by an increased sclerosis in the superior and inferior aspects of the midbody of the vertebra, resulting in the image of a duplicate vertebral body inside the normal one.