

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Obturator Internus Muscle

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Obturator Internus Muscle. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33192.

A striated muscle covering the majority of the lateral wall of the pelvis, with its origin on the ischiopubic ramus and obturator membrane and insertion on the greater trochanter, which functions to externally rotate the hip.