Review of: "Factors contributing to labour unrest at the garment factories in Bangladesh: A cross-sectional study"

Sulaiman Alnasser Mohammed

*Abstract

The study's implications should be included in the abstract.

*Introduction

Please provide the most recent studies on the subject 2023-2022-2021.

Please indicate the problem you are attempting to solve as well as the date the problem occurred.

*Litrature analysis

The first portion should define uret and distinguish between unrest and displeasure.

The theoretical back group must be included in the second section; write about the theories underlying uret.

You did not include the following study:

http://journal-repository.theshillonga.com/index.php/ijaers/article/view/1946

*Methods,

Please explain why you chose the approaches you did; you mentioned using interviews, but nothing else is given.Take notice that interviews necessitate word coding.

Where is your research strategy?

Where are your hypotheses taking shape?

Discussion

Point by point, relate your discussion to the studies you highlighted in the literature.