

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Helper-Inducer T-Lymphocyte

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Helper-Inducer T-Lymphocyte. NCI Thesaurus. Code C12538.

A subtype of CD4+ T lymphocyte that triggers differentiation of nearby immune cells, and initiates a variety of other immune functions, including the induction of humoral and cellular inflammatory immune responses by B and other T lymphocytes, respectively.