Review of: "On bundles of varieties V_2^3 in PG(4, q) and their codes"

Jerome William Hoffman[1]

1 Louisiana State University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This article constructs error-correcting codes from a certain construction in projective 4-space over a finite field. It seems to be well-written. Not being an expert in coding theory I cannot evaluate the practical efficacy of these codes, but it seems to be a pretty construction. Therefore it should be acceptable for publication.