

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Signal Transduction Induction

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Signal Transduction Induction. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40820.

Signal Transduction Induction involves the initiation of activity in cellular processes by which a cell propagates information from an extracellular signal through a series of biochemical reactions inside the cell to produce biological responses to events in the environment or internal milieu.