

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Polyethylene Glycol 1000 Cetyl Ether Cream

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Polyethylene Glycol 1000 Cetyl Ether Cream. NCI Thesaurus. Code C95762.

A cream containing a non-ionic surfactant belonging to the polyethylene glycol (PEG) family. Polyethylene glycol 1000 cetyl ether is used as an ointment base, but can also be used as an emulsifier and solubilizer.