

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Sea-Blue Histiocyte Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Sea-Blue Histiocyte Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C85062.

A rare, inherited or acquired syndrome characterized by the presence of histiocytes in the bone marrow which contain granules stained blue with hematoxylin-eosin stain, mild thrombocytopenia and purpura, and splenomegaly.