

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Inflammatory Myofibroblastic Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Inflammatory Myofibroblastic Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C6481.

A multinodular intermediate fibroblastic neoplasm that arises from soft tissue or viscera, in children and young adults. It is characterized by the presence of spindle-shaped fibroblasts and myofibroblasts, and a chronic inflammatory infiltrate composed of eosinophils, lymphocytes, and plasma cells.