

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Septicemia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Septicemia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C3364.

The presence of pathogenic microorganisms in the blood stream causing a rapidly progressing systemic reaction that may lead to shock. Symptoms include fever, chills, tachycardia, and increased respiratory rate. It is a medical emergency that requires urgent medical attention.