

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Verrucous Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Verrucous Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C3781.

A well differentiated squamous cell carcinoma characterized by a papillary growth pattern, acanthosis, mild cytologic atypia, and pushing tumor margins. The most commonly affected anatomic sites are the oral cavity, nasal cavity, larynx, esophagus, anus, vagina, vulva, and the plantar region of the foot.