

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Clivus Chordoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Clivus Chordoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C5412.

A slow-growing malignant bone tumor arising from the remnants of the notochord and occurring in the clivus. It is characterized by a lobulated growth pattern, myxoid stroma formation, and the presence of physaliphorous cells.