Thanks for inviting me to write a comment on this draft of article. I will be short and concise:

1. Abstract

- It is too long. Be concise and sharp
- State clearly the research gap which will be broadly elaborated

2. Introduction

- This is also too long. It should be about 4-5 paragraph
- The main problem of the article is not clearly described in the first paragraphs

3. Methodology

- Add more paragraphs stating the number of schools and maybe gender balance between male and female teachers

4. Conclusion

- It would be better to elaborate into several paragraphs, not in the form of numbers
- Conclusion should also consist of possible further research.

5. Technicalities

- The title is a bit too long and should be shortened
- English is quite poor and better to be proofread to a professional
