

Review of: "External validation of biomarkers of fatty liver in the general population: the Bagnacavallo study"

Victoria Vysotska

Potential competing interests: The author(s) declared that no potential competing interests exist.

The topic of the article is interesting and relevant in the modern world of medicine. The content of the article meets the requirements of thorough qualitative scientific research. It is interesting in the future to see a comparison of the results with other regions of the country and with other countries to find both patterns and features depending on the geolocation of similar studies.