

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Wright Staining Method

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Wright Staining Method. NCI Thesaurus. Code C85829.

A microscopy staining method that utilizes the Romanowsky stains, eosin and methylene blue, solubilized in methanol. In this staining protocol, methanol is also utilized as a fixative agent prior to staining.