

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Radiofrequency Ablation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Radiofrequency Ablation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C15666.

A therapeutic procedure to kill tissue using radiowaves to generate heat. The procedure is performed by the insertion of an electrode into a target tissue. Electrical energy delivered to the electrode heats and destroys the tissue.