

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Circumflex Branch of the Left Coronary Artery

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Circumflex Branch of the Left Coronary Artery. NCI Thesaurus. Code C12874.

An artery arising from the bifurcation of the left coronary artery that runs along the coronary groove with branches supplying the atria and ventricles.