

Review of: "Hybrid Approach - A 21st Century Skill in Science Education"

Rahul Bhedasgaonkar¹

¹ Kolhapur Institute Of Technology's College Of Engineering

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

After going through this research articles, I found it as very interesting and satisfactory attempt made to make science learning very interesting. Following things should be added in this article

- While framing rubrics, more focus should be given to quantitative rubrics
- In order to analyze the students motivation and engagemnet in laerning, feedback can be collected from students and it should be analysed.