

Review of: "The Chinese View on Time – A Reflection on The Concept of Time in Dao/Yijing And Modern Science"

Zheng Wang¹

¹ China University of Political Science and Law

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

I want to express my sincere appreciation for your thorough and thoughtful response to the feedback provided on your manuscript. Your commitment to addressing the highlighted points and making necessary modifications within the paper is commendable.

I am pleased to note that you have taken into consideration the suggestion to enhance the accessibility of your interdisciplinary work by addressing the complexity for readers unfamiliar with both Chinese philosophy and quantum physics. The inclusion of a glossary and simplification of core concepts will undoubtedly contribute to a broader readership.

Moreover, your efforts to emphasize the contemporary relevance of your findings and their impact on modern societal and ethical contexts, as well as the incorporation of a detailed analysis between Eastern and Western perspectives on time in the conclusion, are highly valued. This addition not only strengthens the overall argument of your manuscript but also provides a more comprehensive understanding for readers.

I am genuinely impressed with the dedication you have shown in refining your work, and I believe these enhancements will significantly contribute to the academic and intellectual value of your manuscript. I am looking forward to the formal publication of your work, as I am confident that it will make a valuable contribution to the field.