Your manuscript, titled "Examining the Comparative Effect of the Built Environment on Crime Prevention in Plotted Development, Especially for Women's Safety at Both Hot and Cold Spots," is a valuable contribution to the field, shedding light on the impact of the built environment on crime in different locations, especially for women. However, I encourage you to consider listing any encountered limitations in the study, such as data availability, model assumptions, generalizability, and temporal considerations. Additionally, it would be beneficial to outline potential future research directions in your conclusion. Incorporating these elements will strengthen your manuscript and contribute to the ongoing advancement of knowledge in this area.
