

Review of: "Integrated decision-making model to enhance the employee-oriented built environment in urban green buildings"

Nilanka Weerasinghe¹

¹ University of Moratuwa

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Authors have done a great piece of work resulting a successful output. The paper is well- organized, well-written and structured systematically. The comprehensive literature review led to result a logical and effective output. The research findings help to fill the gap in the area of employee oriented built environment in urban green buildings. Good Luck!