

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Irritant Contact Dermatitis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Irritant Contact Dermatitis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C27151.

An inflammatory skin condition caused by direct contact between the skin and an irritating substance. It is typically manifested by erythema, mild edema, and scaling at the affected site.