

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Apocrine Hidrocystoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Apocrine Hidrocystoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C43342.

A slow-growing, usually solitary, dome-shaped benign sweat gland adenoma, most frequently located on the eyelid. It is characterized by a cystic proliferation of apocrine glands. Surgical excision is curative.