

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Alopecia antibody deficiency

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Alopecia antibody deficiency. ORPHA:1006

Alopecia antibody deficiency is a rare primary immunodeficiency disorder characterized by the association of alopecia areata totalis and antibody deficiency (congenital agammaglobulinemia or incomplete antibody deficiency syndrome), manifesting with recurrent infections. There have been no further descriptions in the literature since 1976.