

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cytarabine-Thioguanine Regimen

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cytarabine-Thioguanine Regimen. NCI Thesaurus. Code C63660.

A regimen consisting of cytarabine and thioguanine used as post remission maintenance treatment for acute myeloid leukemia. Was originally used as an induction regimen, but has been widely replaced with anthracycline-containing regimens.