

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cross-Correlation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cross-Correlation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C68833.

A statistical measure timing the movements and proximity of alignment between two different information sets of a series of information. A function of the relative time between the signals, it is a measure of similarity of two signals, commonly used to find features in an unknown signal by comparing it to a known one.