The author created a well-written manuscript related to the topic and gave a new perspective on winning culture in the institution.

Abstract: The abstract summarizes the manuscript well.

Introduction: The introduction contains all relevant information to familiarize readers with the topic.

Methodology: The methodology describes in great detail how the study was conducted.

Result: The result is described in detail and is well written, in my opinion. I have a suggestion about the model. Maybe the author could discuss the model that the author proposed in more detail.
