

Review of: "Increasing Renewables and Building Retrofit in a Coal-Based Cogeneration District Heating System"

Giulio Vialetto¹

¹ University of Padua

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This article should require minor changes. It would be useful to understand why CEEP varies only with wind installation and when this mismatch would occur (during daytime or during particular months when heat demand is lower).

Please also consider showing not only the total emissions but also the savings.