

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Triple-Negative Breast Cancer Finding

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Triple-Negative Breast Cancer Finding. NCI Thesaurus. Code C71428.

Triple-negative breast cancer finding is a negative test result that occurs when the cells in the tumor of a breast cancer patient lack the receptors for both estrogen and progesterone and the human epidermal growth factor receptor 2.