

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Alcohol-Related Esophageal Squamous Cell Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Alcohol-Related Esophageal Squamous Cell Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C27928.

An esophageal carcinoma that results from alcohol consumption. The alcohol-related esophageal carcinomas are always of squamous cell type. There is no association between alcohol consumption and esophageal adenocarcinomas.