Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This review provides insightful information on leadership strategies that were used during the COVID-19 pandemic. This review can prove useful to healthcare managers. The following can be taken into consideration:

1. Scoping reviews typically report the decisions about the inclusion and exclusion of sources using a flow diagram.
2. A scoping review requires at least two reviewers.
3. The database engine search should include Scopus or PubMed.
4. The search for literature should be more thorough and should state what is included and excluded as mentioned in point 1.
