Thank you for the opportunity to review your paper. I have the following suggestions for improvement:

1. The abstract should be more refined to explain your work and its significance to theory and practice.
2. It is necessary to add a section of literature review to introduce what research has been done by scholars on this topic, what is the research gap, and how do you plan to fill the gap.
3. It is necessary to fully discuss each conclusion and find out what is different or consistent with the existing literature, and what is your theoretical contribution.
