

Review of: "Assessment of Learner Satisfaction in Secondary School Education"

Evangelia Moustaka

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Dear Editor and Authors,

Thank you for the privilege to review this article.

I would like to see more references in introduction section and need more clarification in the research field. Also, There seems to be a lot of typographical error and grammar errors.

The method section requires clarification.

The results could be more clearly related to the study objective.

In conclusion, it could be a summary of the role of this research with a new knowledge.