Very interesting topic and analysis method adopted.

1. Title: Recommended to add up the word : Exploring the integrated decision-making model to enhance the employee-oriented built environment in urban green buildings.
2. Abstract: A comprehensive abstract that is also clear and straightforward.
3. Introduction: The introduction and research gap are well stated.
4. Method :

>The method was thoroughly explained. It might be clearer and easier to understand if it's presented in a flow chart form.

>Please indicate the figure 1 in the write up. Figure 1 is for what? Did you mention in the write up?

>For the systematic literature review, it is recommended to state the numbers of articles / journal viewing and also the sources of them. You also can do it like in Figure V.

>I believed you had done a thorough review of the literature. It is advised that the systematic literature review included the number of articles or journals that were viewed as well as their sources.

5. Finding and Conclusion - Clear and well explained. Good suggestions for future research as well.

Thank you
