

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Prostate Acinar Mucinous Adenocarcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Prostate Acinar Mucinous Adenocarcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C5537.

A usually aggressive morphologic variant of acinar adenocarcinoma of the prostate gland characterized by the presence of lakes of extracellular mucin. This diagnosis applies when at least 25% of the resected tumor contains extracellular mucin.