

Review of: "The Relationship Between the Perception of Economic Risks and Other Risks Measured in Different and Separate Environments"

Muhammad Adeel¹

¹ National Taipei University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Comments:

1. Please elaborate on the inclusion and exclusion criteria of the study.
2. Please provide the Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval of this study in the method section.
3. What are the criteria for grouping participants into five groups?
4. Which language were the questionnaires used in? Local or English language?
5. What was the duration of the conducted study?
6. Please specify who collected and processed the data.
7. In the methods, data processing and statistical analysis details are missing.
8. Please cite previous studies while discussing your results in the manuscript.
9. In the results section, please add a demographics table.
10. Please move the Appendix section after the discussion. In this version, it is mixed with the discussion.
11. The limitations and implications of this manuscript are missing.
12. The possible implications can be for motor learning and neuroplasticity for the clinical population, mental fatigue for long-distance drivers, work-place performance, ergonomic benefits, and benefits for hiring new employees with the same set of skills for industries.